Commemorative coins on “Silver Jubilee of Shri Mata Vaishno Devi Shrine Board”

By Ravi Shankar Sharma

Prime Minister Dr Manmohan Singh released commemorative coins to mark the silver jubilee of Shri Mata Vaishno Devi Shrine Board (SMVDSB) in New Delhi on 31st Jan. 2013. Governor of Jammu and Kashmir NN Vohra, Union Minister for New and Renewable Energy Dr Farooq Abdullah, Chief Minister of Jammu and Kashmir Omar Abdullah, Dr Karan Singh, president, ICCR, and spiritual guru Sri Sri Ravi Shankar were also present on the occasion. Two coins of Rs 5 and Rs 10 denomination, with the embossing the logo of SMVDSB, were released by the Prime Minister. Goddess Vaishno Devi is believed to be the eldest deity among the six other Devis whose shrines lie between the Yamuna and the Chenab rivers in north India. During its 51st meeting of Shri Mata Vaishno Devi Shrine Board on December 28 last, it was informed that to mark the silver jubilee, the Government of India's approval had been secured for the minting of Proof and Un-Circulated commemorative coin set, besides two billion circulation coins of Rs 5 and Rs 10 denomination. Coins are minted from India Government Mint, Mumbai (A unit of SPMCIL). The SMVDSB came into being in August 1986 to manage the services and the round-the-year pilgrimage to the highly revered shrine. Farooq Abdullah's National Conference-led coalition Government later ratified the Governor's initiative through the Jammu and Kashmir Shri Mata Vaishno Devi Shrine Act, 1988. Under the provisions of the law, the Governor acts as Chairman and appoints not more than 10 persons as members of the board.

The main objective of the Act was to provide for better management and governance of the shrine and its endowments, including the appurtenant lands and buildings, previously managed by a private religious body.

An all time high 1.04 crore pilgrims visited holy cave shrine of Shri Mata Vaishno Devi ji during 2012 recording an increase of 3.79 lakh over 2011.

Japan to produce 500 million Tk 2 coins

By Sri Riddhi Bhattacharya

The Bangladesh government on Sunday inked an agreement with a Japanese firm to procure 500 million pieces of 2 Taka metal coins from Japan.

Joint Secretary at the Ministry of Finance Akhlasur Rahman and Japan Mint President Yoshiake Shinhara signed the agreement at Bangladesh Bank's

(BB) headquarters in Dhaka.

Japan's Ambassador in Dhaka Shiro Sadoshima and BB Governor Atiur Rahman were also present there.

The central bank said the coins will carry an image of the Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman. Each of the coins will cost Taka 1.10.

As per the deal, Japan Mint will deliver the new coins in six shipments starting from April.

The state-affiliated firm of Japan recently won the contract to mint coins worth $12 million for Bangladesh after participating in an international bid with Germany, Britain, The Netherlands and Slovakia.

This was the first order Tokyo had received for coins in circulation of any foreign country since the end of World War II. They clinched the contract on November last year with a bid of $6.5 million, the lowest.

Governor Rahman said, "The process of making these coins has ended with great transparency. A huge amount of foreign currency will be saved as this is a government-to-government deal."

He said earlier each of such coins would cost Taka 1.22.
