Great Robbery of Indian Coins at Mumbai

A record of coins stolen on 2nd July 2013 from a shop at Dagina Bazar Mumbai

It was in the morning of 2nd July 2013 that four unidentified Afghan youths entered the shop No. 47 at Dagina Bazaar, Mumbai and stole a bag containing valuable coins. Within seconds they were chased and one person was caught. However, he did not give trail of the other three who are absconding. The picture of the bag lifter is caught in CCTV and is given herewith. A list of coins in the bag is given herewith so that collectors and dealers worldwide can be cautious while dealing with these coins. Any information about their existence will be welcome and will be rewarded handsomely. If anyone has any clue about this theft then please contact P. P. Kulkarni on 91-8888883417.
